10) The practice in the matter of reconciliation of departmental revenue figures with those of actual credit seems to be not quite the same in different provinces in Bombay. The procedure in force in Bengal seems to lend some support to the views of the Chief Court.

11) A reference to paras 126 to 160 of the Bengal Treasury Manual will show that the verification is arranged by the Comptroller, and the Bd of Revenue is furnished with a certificate that the capital and account figures are reconciled.

12) There appears to be no objection to adopting the suggestion of the Chief Court that in respect of the items entered there Magistrates statements might be sent to the Dist Magt for verification.

13) It is a point for consideration whether even this procedure is necessary at all. For under the provision contained in para 37 of the Treasury Manual stamps all judicial officers, including Sub Jurors & the Comptroller there the Treasury officer a statement of fines, stamp penalties, ... & other items realised in their Courts on account of Govt and remitted by them. 16) From the papers in the file it is clear that credit statements regarding the receipts were not being sent to the Chief Court for verification and the Comptroller has no explanation to offer as to why they were not being sent like now. He suggested by the Chief Court the verification may be made by the Dt. Magistrates themselves. He is such a practice is in vogue in British India and the Financial Secretariat Branch see no objection in adopting that course here also. Especially as the necessity for such verification likely to be of doubtful value, it does not seem desirable

SIR,

I have the honor to state that as laid in para 29 of the Mysore Treasury Manual, credit statements from July 1917 under XIV Law and Justice were sent to the Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore. That -- Officer has returned the statements with his No.D.2 Dis.No.620 dated the 30th March 1918 (copy enclosed) stating that it is not possible to verify the figures given therein, as there is no rule that statements of receipts should be submitted to the Chief Court by the -- District Magistrates and asking me therefore to send them direct to the District Magistrates.

2. The Chief Court is in the position of the controlling authority of the Department and the Account Office can only report the figures to such authority. The duty of reconciling the Treasury credits reported by the Account Department with the amounts stated to have been remitted to the Treasury, belongs to the departmental controlling authority. If there is now no rule for submission by District Magistrates of departmental returns to the Chief Court, -- there is need for laying it down. As the Chief Court accepts the receipt estimates prepared by this office and also furnishes a -- statement of receipts in the annual Administration Report of the Judicial Department, it should therefore arrange to get departmental

That statements of receipts credited to the Treasury through the Dt. magistrates were not before being sent to the chief court for verification.

The financial Department sees no objection in adopting the course suggested by the chief court.

Govt. are accordingly pleased to accept the proposal and to direct that in respect of items of receipts credited through magistrates the statements shall be sent direct to the Dt. magistrates for verification.
